

LIMITED LIFETIME WARRANTY

Section 1.0: Lexan Polycarbonate Door

The manufacturer guarantees to repair or replace any door produced by Skid Steer Doors of North America that is reported broken, cracked or shattered, this includes but is not limited to any material or workmanship that may be considered defective within their applicable warranty periods.

This portion of warranty covers the Lexan Polycarbonate that is considered the structural door and does not include any other pieces that complete or makes it functional as a door.

LIMITED 90 DAY WARRANTY

Section 1.1: Door Hardware

Any handle, latch and hinge come with a 90-day replacement guarantee if the defects or damages reported are not as a result of operator handling or error.

Section 1.2: Optional Equipment

Any side window panel system, wiper arm and motor, heater and LED lightbar come with a 90-day replacement guarantee if the defects or damages reported are not as a result of operator handling or error.

DISQUALIFICATIONS

Section 2.0: Negligence

Any skid steer loader that is determined to have suffered damages as a result of an operation that is not safe, practical and would be reasonable to expect damages to occur.

Operating the skid steer load while the door is not properly closed or open, or when not properly stored or cared for such as seasonal use, maintenance or otherwise.

Section 2.1: General Considerations

Any type of modifications or installation on other applications that alters the original design for the purposes or uses that it was intended for.

DEFINITIONS

“Manufacturer” means Skid Steer Doors of North America INC.

“Guarantee” means a formal promise or assurance that certain conditions will be fulfilled.

“Material” means any Lexan Polycarbonate.

“Door” means any Lexan Polycarbonate material used in any CNC router or thermoform design.

“Breakage” means any door that breaks or cracks when properly mounted and closed while any skid steer loader is being operated in a safe and intended manner.

“Normal and intended operational use” means any door failure that occurred as a result of any reasonable operational circumstances or ones that are and were beyond that of any individuals control, provided they were engaged in operations that was safe and practical.

“First retail purchaser” means any person, individual, business, company, corporation whether public or private that is considered the original owner according to purchase records and ordering information.

“Whole or in part” means any door that cracks or breaks completely or remains partially intact and reasonably compromises the functionality, strength and integrity of it.

“Nontransferable” means any warranty or guarantee will expires with the transfer of ownership to any other person, individual, business, company or corporation for any door whether it was mounted or not to a skid steer loader that was intended for the original owners use.

“Partner” means any recognized dealer or reseller also endorsed by Skid Steer Doors of North America INC.

“One-time” means if qualified the claimant can expect to receive a replacement door for their original purchase, any further warranty expectations are considered fulfilled, exhausted and forever released by both parties with the second replacement door.

“Negligent operation” means any activity, action or practise that causes a door to fail or become compromised, broken or no longer useful and reliable.

“Preventable” means the damage was avoidable and unnecessary.

DISCLAIMERS

Lexan Polycarbonate is not a laminated or ballistic grade material; do not attempt to use in excess of its commercial application, Lexan Polycarbonate can break when put under extreme conditions.

Always operate your skid steer loader with care, caution and consideration for the safety of yourself, others and your equipment.

RETURNS

Please see our website advertisements for return policy information @

www.skidsteerdoors.com